

NOBODY KNOWS GLASGOW BETTER

EveningTimes

40p

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 14 2008

LATE NIGHT SPECIAL

PETER MARTIN

Clyde Superscoreboard ace writes for the Times

PAGE 45

GLASGOW'S BEST GOING OUT GUIDE

timeout

FREE MAG INSIDE

MURDER HUNT

Man dies in gang stabbing horror

A MURDER hunt has been launched after a 30-stone man was stabbed to death.

The 37-year-old victim was attacked by a gang late last night in Blantyre, Lanarkshire.

A group of youths jumped out of a car and stabbed the victim in the stomach as he walked along Hardie Street

TURN TO PAGE 2

GLASGOW

Names go in city's boundary changes

SOME of the most famous names in Glasgow are to be wiped off the political map under plans to shake up MSPs' constituencies.

Cathcart and Govan would disappear, to be replaced by names such as East Glasgow, North Central Glasgow and South Central Glasgow.

The city is set to lose one Scottish Parliament seat under the proposals.

PAGE 2

City of love

STUDENTS' SPECIAL VALENTINE GIFT - P3

PICTURE: MARG TURNER

EXCLUSIVE Work on vital route to start in May

GO-AHEAD AT LAST FOR M74 MISSING LINK

By BRIAN CURRIE

THE missing link of the M74 was finally given the green light today by the Scottish Government.

Work should start on the £445million project in May and finish in 2011. The news was hailed as "tremendous for jobs, commuters - and the 2014 Commonwealth Games".

FULL STORY - PAGES 6, 7

Di Maggio's

city centre t. 0141 248 2111

west Nile st t. 0141 333 4999

west end t. 0141 334 6000

Book online www.dimaggios.co.uk

shawlands t. 0141 632 8888

hamilton t. 01698 891828

east kilbride t. 01355 242222

airdrie t. 01236 763853

valentines menu

from £44.95 per couple

3 courses & bottle of wine

Thursday 14th February 2008