

EveningTimes

40p

TUESDAY MAY 13 2008

LATE NEWS FINAL

cityliving

GLASGOW'S BEST HOMES GUIDE

STARTS PAGE 29

WIN: £1000 TO SPEND AT

DEBENHAMS

SEE PAGE 18 FOR DETAILS

COURT

Youth is jailed for raping girl, 11

A TEENAGER was today jailed for six years for raping an 11-year-old girl and then having sex with a 13-year-old while he was on bail.

Craig Black, 17, attacked the first youngster as she slept in Saltcoats, Ayrshire.

He struck after drinking vodka and Buckfast.

Black, who had earlier admitted rape and unlawful sexual intercourse, was sentenced at the High Court in Glasgow.

Judge Lord Brailsford told him that such serious offences must result in

■ TURN TO PAGE 2

£7.2M PROJECT

Stage set for facelift at King's

THE King's Theatre is to get a £7.2million revamp.

Work is due to begin on the Glasgow institution later this year, and it is expected to be finished in time for the Commonwealth Games in 2014.

The city council and theatre-goers will help foot the bill, with a £1 "restoration levy" added to ticket prices.

■ PAGE 9

Thousands of fans set off on Euro final adventure

GERS' BLUE CONVOY

THIS was the scene outside Ibrox today as Rangers blue army set off for Manchester.

A huge convoy of cars and vans – most decked in the club colours – left Glasgow for their date with destiny.

Up to 100,000 Rangers fans are expected in the English city for tomorrow night's Uefa Cup Final.

UEFA SPECIAL – PAGES 4,5,6 & 7 PLUS SPORT PAGES 65,66,67,68,69,70,71 & 72